

African Tulip Tree

Scientific Name: Spathodea campunalata

Features:

- 1. This is an evergreen, semi-deciduous having stem which on aging becomes hollow with drooping branches.
- 2. Native to West Africa, various parts of this plant are used for treating a range of diseases like epilepsy, kidney diseases. Interesting Fact- The fruits of this plant are poisonous, which are boiled to obtain a poisonous liquid. The hunters of Africa use this liquid on the tip of their arrows.

